News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., February 22.
A man, whose name is having been spread, the city of Peter-burg is to issue $165,000 of bonds instead of retiring bonds to that amount, which was the first of June, a number of letters have been received here from financial centres in the North and West making inquiries as to the issue, with the view of buying as an investment.

City Auditor G. B. Gill has been kept busy with the matter, but he has inquiries and explaining that the city does not propose to issue any new bonds until it will, on the first of June, redeem in cash the entire issue of $165,000 maturing on that date.

The City Council has already arranged to retire the bonds with money and securities in its sinking fund. But the inquiries serve to show how high the bonds of the city of Petersburg are regarded in the financial markets as an investment.

Sudden Death from Hemorrhage.
Mrs. Laura Gunn, who was very early this morning at the home of her son, Mrs. Laura Gunn, on West High Street, was taken with a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, and died in a few minutes. She had been in delicate health for some time. Miss Hall was a sister of Isaac Hall, of the police corps, and is survived by several brothers and sisters.
